SCHOOL SONG

O, LINCOLN HIGH
Oh, that some angel's voice were near
To sing these notes of gladness,
To chase all silence from the air
That fills our hearts with sadness;
For glad some notes our lips would breathe of Lincoln, dear old Lincoln!
For glad some notes our lips would breathe of Lincoln.

O, Lincoln High, O, Lincoln High
Tho' from thy guiding hand we stray,
Thy memories will cheer the way;
O, Lincoln High, O, Lincoln High
O, Lincoln High, O, Lincoln High!

FOR E W O R D

With the passing of time, the echoes of our school life will grow fainter and fainter and then die away. Gone forever will be the routine of school life, the fun we had, and the friends we made. Within these pages is contained the account of the days we spent in the castle on the hill. Only when we look back to these full days of living, working, and playing together, will we realize their true value. It is to help you in your remembering that we give you the Lincolnian of 1953.

Physical education has the same responsibilities and the same objectives as has education in general. Physical education leaders believe they have an opportunity to develop interest, joy, and satisfaction in many skills, and these skills in terms of sports, dance and recreational activities now and which will continue into mature use of leisure time.

YEARBOOK STAFF

The staff of the 1953 Lincolnian, has made a serious effort to cover all phases of the activities at Lincoln High. It is impossible, of course, to present a picture that will please everyone; we hope, however, that we have failed in very little. Thus, we pass on to you, our record of events at Lincoln during 1952-53.

CLASS HISTORY

In every life, there comes a time when each of us sits back to reminisce. Such a time has come for us, the Senior Class of 1953. We cannot hope to recall all our many glorious experiences; for such an attempt would be an insult to our memories. Neither can we tell all that we do recall in the very limited space allotted us for this purpose; so the following recollections are only those we consider most significant.

No doubt the fall of 1949 has a separate and a somewhat warm feeling for every senior; that was the first time when two hundred eighty-eight of us entered dear ole Lincoln High's "portals of knowledge" to begin a four-year project which would complete the major segment of our public education. Our freshman year found us in a strange school trying hard to acclimate ourselves to our new environment. As the school year rolled around and the summer vacation ended we found ourselves sophomores.

While sophomores we presented to our school a new activity, a "soph hop." Time passed and so did we. Before long, we were juniors. As juniors we met our most infamous and formidable opponents, the annual English and mathematics examinations. But, after many days of anxiety, we were informed that most of us had conquered our opponents. We became more conscientious as the year came to a close; for we know that the next year would be the most important in our lives. During our senior year we united under our president, Richard Goldsby, and our vice-president, Lee Patterson, to make our achievements shine brighter than ever.

Equally sharing a golden cupboard in our storehouse of memories are our athletic contests. Although our grid team has been suffering a deficit of players in the past few years, they have fought like the name assigned to them, like tigers. Under the leadership of Worley Brooks and James Buford this year, our team has been able to win more than half the games they have played. As one reminisces in the realm of sports, he cannot justifiably exclude basketball. In the year of '50-'51 and '51-'52, there was not a team in the Midwest formidable to the potent Tigers. Already, this year, our basketball squad has won more than seventy-five per cent of its games. Also, our track meets occupy a top shelf in our sports cupboard. Every Tiger leg on the track and every claw on the field has been a threat to our adversaries.

But our eyes and minds were not wholly clouded by athletics. In the cool of the evening our thoughts and hearts turned to drama. Our own classmates provided us with several outstanding productions; namely, "Mama's Little Angel Child," which starred many juniors with outstanding acting ability, and our senior success, "The Night of June 16th." These theatrical presentations, along with a couple of others, are only a few of our important recollections which have reserved places in our memories.

While recalling past events and experiences, we cannot commit the sin of omitting our band, which is under the direction of Mr. Calvin Whitmore. Only last year, in the Missouri State Music Festival, our band won five first place prizes. From the band there have been several members selected for the Kansas City All-City Orchestra for the first time in the history of Lincoln. Our sojourn at Lincoln has seen the band develop into the finest orchestra in dear ole Lincoln High's history. Moreover, the music of the band will always ring cheerfully in our memories.

Now that we are seniors, we have almost completed the project which we began four years ago as freshmen. Our achievements in dramatics, athletics, and in other such activities have been great; our intellectual growth, greater. Here at Lincoln, we, the Senior Class of 1953, have had incomparable experiences, which will be meaningful to us for a lifetime. But, now, the pursuit for a high school diploma, which has lasted for a seemingly brief four years, is almost over. Only the future can determine our success or failure. Having read this brief account of our past activities, you can better appreciate this yearbook and the earnestness of the Senior Class of 1953. Ave atque vale!

CLASS PROPHECY

Flying on my magic carpet in the year of 1963, I see a beautiful city, in one part of which I see many large buildings, and because of my curiosity I brought my carpet to a landing to visit the city.

I stopped in front of a beautiful cathedral where I heard music ringing. I peeked through the window and much to my surprise I saw CHARLENE HARDIN playing hymns in a boogie-woogie style with the guest vocal soloist, none other than GEORGE NOLAN. In the same building I found CHARLES SCOTT, Director of Music at the Institution of Wayward Brains, conducting the Nutcracker Suite. That was surely enough of that.

I continued down the street and came to the Find-U-No-Work Employment Agency. Who were the proprietors???? You guessed it! THOMAS SAUNDERS and HERBERT NICKERSON. After an enjoyable chat with "Tuckie" I continued my stroll. I saw a "sharp" car parked not so far away; so I walked over to see what kind it was. Much to my surprise again I found JEANE SIMPSON seated behind the wheel and asked her to take me for a ride. We went speeding up the street and were arrested. As we walked to the station I was amazed to see ZELMA LLOYD serving as the only judge and NAN CUNNINGHAM, Traffic Cop.

I left Jeane and was alone once again. I walked down a beautiful path and I entered the "Right Proportion Modelling Agency" to see MARY KIDD modelling swimming suits and MABLE NORMAN modelling shoes for the tall girl. I came out to a noisy section of town and saw signs announcing the new ballet team of MARTHA RUSSELL and DEXTER MILLER.

I rubbed my almost closed eyes, for I was sleepy but couldn't retire when things were beginning to get so interesting. So I visited a famous nightclub where I heard JACQULYN CALLOWAY singing torch songs accompanied by HENRY McADAMS and WILLIAM THOMAS. While I was chatting with her, who walked in flashing "dime-Ones" ---none other than Vada Hill, who is owner of a reducing salon. She told me her partner was DOROTHY WILSON, and invited me to come along with her to see a famous radio program. The program was "It Pays to Be Ignorant" with Leroy Walker master of ceremonies and JEAN WARD his first contestant.

Outside of the studio I saw RICHARD GOLDSBY trying to peddle some of his unusual chemical concoctions with his two lovely secretaries MAXINE GARRETT and SHIRLEY JOHNSON.

After an enjoyable evening I decided to listen to a radio show, "Real Crazy Man," on which RALPH JAMIERSON is the sharp-witted disc jockey and FAYE SMITH was his assistant.

I then retired on the "Sink-um-low" mattress by Pernell and Lopez, Inc.

On awakening very early the next morning I stopped at a corner drugstore for a snack, and who was whipping up such strange things (such as kikapoo sodas) but the famous soda jerk ANNA DEAN ROULETTE! I decided to visit a rising new business establishment owned by CHARLES DREW, CHESTER CADE, and LEE PATTERSON. They sell toupees and wigs of all descriptions. Mr. Drew told me of SHIVERLA NORMAN and ORA JEAN CARR'S success as charm school directors. I also found out that SANDRA NORTH is getting fat from her income of the new book "Me and the Hambone", and that DOROTHY FINLEY is brakewoman and OPALINE BRICE is mailcarrier on the largest freight train in the country. I learned also that JAMES BUFORD is coach of the all girls Eager-Beavers football squad.

Well my carpet is calling me so I must leave.
BUT I WONDER??????????

HOMECOMING TONIGHT

Big Parade Set

The grandest Lincoln High School Homecoming parade in history, a long procession with festive balloons, plenty of pretty girls, gallant young men, the ROTC personnel, the resplendent band, the high stepping majorettes, sleek motor cars, breath-taking floats, banners, music and gaiety will sweep majestically from the school down the Woodland hill.

The route taken in the parade will follow Woodland to twenty-second, east to Brooklyn, south to twenty-seventh, east to Prospect, north on Prospect to twelfth, west to Paseo, south to eighteenth, and back to school by way of Woodland.

College Week

The fourth College Week for Kansas City, Missouri high school will be held November 27-30 in preparation for the conference there will be home room meetings of students to discuss kinds of colleges, entrance requirements, scholarships, loans, work and courses available. College catalogues will be displayed and school papers and bulletins will carry articles about the participating colleges. As this preparation continues, students will register for College Day, making two or three definite choices. The registration card will be made in triplicate so that there will be one for each college counselor. There will be three periods, each one-half hour in length. During the first two periods students will be assigned according to their choices; the third period will be for free browsing.

The Lincoln High School and the R. T. Coles Vocational School will hold their College Week session in the Lincoln High School cafeteria at 7:15 p.m. on Thursday, November 29. Juniors and seniors and their parents are invited to attend this conference.

Savoy Plans In

The College Savoy plans got under way last week. The plot centers around Lincoln's chorus and entertainers.

A country girl named Cindy who possesses a great voice and is enticed to the city is the theme. According to the planners, the program promises to be the best ever produced.

1953-LINCOLN TIGERS-1953

IN THE HUDDLE

During the 1952 football season the Lincoln Tigers, under the mentorship of Coach Owen G. Lee and Assistant Coaches Laurence P. Wilson and James McCreary, showed great progress. Both at home and abroad the boys manifested a do-or-die spirit such as is rarely seen in the high school team. Co-captains Worley Brooks and James Buford provided strategy and inspiration for their fellow Tigers. The claws sank a little deeper this year!

The highlight of the gridiron season was the breath-taking victory over R. T. Coles for the City Championship.

OFF THE BACKBOARD

The Lincoln High School Tigers, after a successful season against stiff competition in Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Missouri, climaxed the season by wading through all opposition at the M. N. I. A. A. State Basketball Tournament and emerging as State Basketball Champions. Coach Kirkpatrick molded together a formidable aggregation which lost to only three other teams as they clawed their way through a tough twenty-five game schedule. Three of the Tigers, Worley Brooks, Thomas Saunders, and Casey Hawthorne, were named to the All-State first team.

It's too early to make a report on the 1953 track team, but we can point with pride to the record made by the boys in 1952. Indications for this year are good, and Coach Mason has high hopes for his boys.
